

Akshaya Apollo Hospital Ahmedabad, India

Client: Apollo Hospitals
Ahmedabad, India

Scope: 560,000 sq. ft. Hospital
7,700 sq. ft. Central Plant

Budget: $55 million Construction Cost

Completion: 1997-1998

This new medical center is part of the Apollo Hospitals Group in India and Sri Lanka.

The hospital accommodates 500 patient beds, including more than 100 ICU beds and 50 OB/GYN beds. It has surgery, emergency, imaging, food service, cafeteria, laundry, pharmacy, laboratories and materials management departments.

Central Plant contains equipment to provide steam, chilled water, medical gases, vacuum and compressed air to the hospital.

